THE HARVEST:

The 2011 harvest yielded grapes of premium quality grown on the Glasnevin alluvial soils on Georges Road in the Waipara Valley. The crop was hand-picked over two days.

THE WINE:

Fermented and matured for 6 months in seasoned French oak barriques, the wine is richly perfumed and weighty. The bouquet is distinctly spicy; the palate full bodied with strong, ripe lychee, pear and spice flavours, gentle sweetness and excellent complexity. Absolutely delicious.
