THE HARVEST:

The 2013 harvest was sourced from selected grapes grown and produced from the Darnley Road vineyard of Richard and Anna Lindsay. The fruit was hand-picked at optimum ripeness.

THE WINE:

The grapes were whole-bunch pressed and the juice underwent an indigenous yeast ferment and maturation on lees, in seasoned French oak barriques. Bottling occurred in December 2013. It is a finely scented wine, supple and generous with good depth of golden colour. It is rich and luscious in a medium style with a long smooth finish and ripe fruit flavours. A wine to be enjoyed now or for cellaring over the next 4-5 years.
